

Question: What time of the day is the Eid al-Fitr prayer?

Answer: Anytime between sunrise and noon, but the earlier part of the day is recommended for Eid al-Fitr.

Abu Bakr (radiyallaahu `anhu) said:

"The time of the two Eid prayers is after the sun has reached the height of a spear, and until noon. However, it is best to pray al-Adh at the earliest time, to enable the people to slaughter their sacrifices; and is recommended to delay al-Fitr prayer, to enable the people to give out their Sadaqah (zakat ul-Fitr)."
